Chapter CA-1R – “Seals” (Friends for Fun, Safety & Knowledge)

We gather on the 1st Sunday of each month: 7:30 am Breakfast/Social, 8:00 am Fun/Info

Hi friends, time for another Chapter Newsletter.

This past weekend your fearless leaders braved the hills and winds to represent our chapter at the Officer’s Convention in the always beautiful downtown Bakersfield. It appeared that there were fewer chapters represented than in the past but those of us who made the perilous trip were rewarded with fun, friendship and information. We went so that you don’t have to go. The information was mainly directed to the chapter officers such as treasury information and leadership skills (lord knows I could use that). But we had fun and saw a lot of old friends, and yes, we’re all getting older. Anyway, here are some photos from the event. Mary Kay got a thank you as MEC and I got participation trophy for entering our monthly newsletter in their contest.

Friday night dinner.

We were asked to come up with goals for the future of our chapter. As for goals going into the new year, my goal is to maintain the status quo and keep having fun. I think we've settled into a comfortable pattern for us in that we have regular meetings and dinners and an occasional excursion thrown in for everyone's enjoyment. We also have a lot of fun at our monthly meetings with contests, games and lots of giveaways. We seem to have maintained the usual group of characters with an occasional visitor to keep us on our best behavior. Thank you all for making this chapter such a great chapter. Long live Chapter CA1R.

Our next big event is Super Bowl Sunday. Rob and Mona are again opening their home for the party and you are invited. Please do them the favor of RSVP and let them know what snacks you would like to share.
